XLeco

Platform for fast and easy web site maintenance for personal and professional use.

On the market that is changing every moment it's hard to stay relevant and up to date that is why You need fast and flexible system which will give you advantage over your competition. These are some of advantages of XLeco that will help you stay ahead:

- Web site ready for viewing from all devices – if the device has any modern HTML5 browser it can display your site phone, tablet, laptop even a TV.

- Web site that you can maintain from any device that has modern browser – life on the go requires that information is always available and up to date and XLeco allows you to update your site wherever you are without any additional software required.

- Your content SEO ready.

- Built in tools that are easy to use with simple explanations in the language that you can understand.

- Maintenance and organizing of written content in easily searchable categories with built in tools for picture editing.

- File manager that resizes and optimizes images at client side thus reducing bandwidth used for uploading and viewing images for You and Your visitors, built in Google Drive file picker for using it as extension for Your web storage and optimized web viewing documents without office suit installed on the device.

- Responsive viewing of images and sliders with a lot of effects on all modern web browsers with just a few clicks.

- Organizing of content in responsive menus.

- Simple or advanced web forms manager protected with reCaptcha anti-spam system for contacts, support, ordering goods and services.

- Built in design builder tool suitable for beginners and professional who are trying to fast-track design implementation and maintenance. You can assign a different responsive design for each content if you want.

- Additional CRM system tightly integrated with XLeco platform for user and website maintenance.

- Chrome/Opera extension for importing content that you don't have admin access to.

- Wordpress import tool allows you to bring your Wordpress content into XLeco and continue where you've left off but with image optimisation and responsive tools.

- PayPal credits purchases for instant payments